II.. Basis for Jurisdiction

1st and 14th Ammendments of the U.S. Constitution, and Title IX.

III.. Statement of Claim

Employment discrimination, harrassment, and gross negligence.

27 Years x $150,000.00 USD equals $4,050,000.00 USD; these are the damages sought by the Plaintiff.

Airports, airlines, gas stations, and school systems display no ordinary and standard unit of space and time representing the daily distance between the Earth and Moon, which changes daily but is not exhaustive, nor the sum of mileage for that day's variable change.

Both effect economy, communications, innovation, safety, and resiliency, daily, and in both wider and narrower time intervals.

The Defendants are grossly negigent of this because some of their decisions have been guided to take advantage of the Plaintiffs' business instead, or try to, over the course of the past 27 years.

In 1997, the Plaintiff Norton graduated from REDACTED with a degree in motion picture making, moved from REDACTED to California to pursue a career directing and producing entertainment content.

Since that time, Defendants have tried to prevent that action from occurring using protocols and processes, and resources, within their organizations and agencies, rather than applying their actions to meet the needs of their agencies and organizations.

Most recently, Officers Carter and Hermanson threatened Mr. Norton on multiple occassions with almost verbatim inappropriate and inaccurate verbal claims, staing to Mr. Norton, "I know all about you." while serving him with Harrassment and Trespass warnings and filings with the District Attorneys of Maine illegally. The Plaintiff claims they and their agents and associates are being lied to by their superiors, and causing the continued action of employment discrimination against the Plaintiff, just as usajobs.gov, one of the U.S. agencies' devices is, September 1997-July 2024.

The Plaintiff asks the Court if service to usajobs.gov, since they represent human resources for all of the U.S. agencies listed as Defendants, is more or less appropriate than seeking service via the U.S. Supreme Court?

Immediate relief sought is listed in the Plaintiff's attached operational plan for business, which has been prevented by the Defendants in perpetuity.

Mr. Norton seeks $4,050,000.00 for personal damages inflicted against him, his identity, and businesses, ~~which have been prevented~~, his freedom and rights, for the duration listed in this complaint.

V. Closing

I agree to provide the Clerk's Office with any changes to my address where case-related papers may be served. I understand that my failure to keep a current address on file with the Clerk's office may result in the dismissal of my case.

This has been going on for way too long. I trust the Court will include consideration of John F. Kennedy's State of the Union address focusing on civil justice and equality on January 30, 1961. There is a great excerpt on the lobby wall of the U.S. Attorneys Office here in Bangor--not only via the libraries elsewhere and via Google, Bing, and Adobe's PDFs.
